COMMITTED BEAUTY SINCE 1959

In 1959, in the attic of his family home in La Gacilly, in Brittany, France, Yves Rocher created Botanical Beauty®, an innovative beauty concept that draws its ingredients from nature and combines them with the best of science. Sixty years have since passed: everything has changed, yet nothing has changed. Our values and beliefs are the same, and we will continue to do what we have always done: reveal the beauty of women while helping to care for the good of the planet.

“People call me a pioneer, but all I did was follow nature’s lead”
